

Holy Rosary School Welcomes Talented Band Leader Alex Dugdale as Afterschool Band Director!

Holy Rosary School is proud to welcome regionally-renowned musician and tap dancer, Alex Dugdale, as the director for the afterschool bands. Mr. Dugdale has been leading the Holy Rosary School Bands afterschool since February of 2013, and will lead the bands at the annual Holy Rosary School Christmas concert this month. His talent has been featured at venues throughout the region, including The Seattle Repertory Jazz Orchestra, who features his tap dancing on “David Danced Before the Lord” to climax the annual Duke Ellington Sacred Music Concert. Mr. Dugdale was also recently profiled on the cover of Earshot Jazz magazine, which highlighted his work teaching band at elementary schools in our area.
