

Holy Rosary Helping Hands

Former Holy Rosary students (now going through the Confirmation process with HR Religion teacher Kelly Groesbeck) led a food packing event last night to help homeless students in our area through the Edmonds School District Foundation's Nourishing Network program. Enough kits were assembled to help feed more than 180 students for one weekend.