Hello Everybody! I'm so glad we finally got our first edition of the newspaper done, both on paper and digitally. We hope you enjoy it! Happy Holidays! -Ram Reporter Staff

Reindeer Cookies

(these do not look like reindeer)

- 1/2 cup butter
- 3 tablespoons cocoa powder
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1/2 cup peanut butter
- 3 cups quick oatmeal

Directions:

1. Combine sugar, milk, butter, & cocoa in a saucepan and cook over medium-high heat until it boils.
2. Boil and stir for one minute.
3. Add remaining ingredients to the mixture and stir.
4. Quickly spoon cookie size pieces on wax paper and allow cooling.

I just wanted to say that my mom used to make these for my brother and I when we were little and we have enjoyed them ever since. I hope everyone enjoys this recipe.

Sincerely,

Lauren Johnson

Sports

Hi guys! Jake Pauly here, telling you about some previous sports updates. The Seahawks are now 12-2. I am sad that one of the teams that beat us was the 49ers. The Huskies beat the Cougars in the Apple Cup. The Ducks beat the Beavers in the Civil War. All teams are doing great, especially all of our CYO basketball teams! The NBA season already started and soon after, Derick Rose got hurt. Also Steve Sarkisian just left the Huskies hanging when he went to coach USC.

Movie Corner

- Holly Sudol

Recently, I have seen a lot of great movies but I want to tell you about “Frozen”, which I really enjoyed and will be fun for the whole family.

“Frozen” is good fun for both younger and older kids. It is funny, has a good story, and lots of music in it. As we follow a group of adventurers on a mission to save their kingdom, there is a lot of action and humor along the way. It also has a nice message for everyone about loyalty. It is shown in regular theaters and in 3D.

Another family movie that is coming in January is called “The Nut Job”. It is an animated movie about a squirrel and a rat and their adventures as they plan a big heist of a nut store in their town. It opens up on January 17th.

Merry Christmas!
